Office Pride has become one of the nation's most respected full-service commercial cleaning companies, thanks to a set of Core Values that we live and work by every day. Our franchise owners, their employees and our entire corporate support-center team all embrace those core values as the foundation for all our business activities.

And what we're doing works. What else? We want franchisees who truly enjoy working with other people, from customers to vendors to employees. It's critical to understand how to manage your finances, but it's never just about the money. Yes, we talk a lot about our faith, but we don't make decisions based on church attendance. What matters to us is whether you embrace our values and walk the walk. If you're honest, have a good work ethic, believe in helping others and always conduct yourself with integrity, then you're a perfect fit for us.
